

Acceptable Identification for Keys Online Training

Note: all identification must be submitted with a statutory declaration and witnessed by a justice of the peace

Original or Certified Copy of Photographic Identification

- a current and valid drivers license issued by an Australian State or Territory; or
- an 18 plus card; or
- a current and valid passport; or
- a school identity card.

Or; A valid international or Australian passport

- If the participant cannot provide photographic identification they must provide original or certified copies of at least three other forms of identification, one of which must bear their current address, such as;
  - A Medicare card, birth certificate, credit card, land title record, rates notice, public utility account such as for electricity, gas, water or road toll, or land line telephone account.

Or;

Where Centrelink has paid for the course for the participant, Centrelink approved proof of identity.